| Title   | With the Lunar New Year approaching, send your love and longing back home with a single phone call.   |
| Content | To enable inmates to express their love and New Year wishes to their families ahead of the Lunar New Year, Kaohsiung Second Prison held the “2026 Lunar New Year Family Phone Call Event” on January 14, 2026. The event was organized in collaboration with the Gangshan Operations Office of Chunghwa Telecom Co., Ltd., which provided 38 toll-free public welfare phones and 2 international phone lines. These services helped inmates convey their care and longing to family members far away through each heartfelt phone call. A total of 609 inmates participated in the event. The atmosphere on-site was warm and orderly. The words of concern and blessings exchanged over the phone not only brought families closer together, but also added a deep sense of human warmth to the winter season. The prison will continue to implement various family-support initiatives that emphasize compassion and care, accompanying inmates as they move forward steadily and injecting positive | energy into their journey toward successful reintegration into society.
