

標題	Set-Shot Basketball Competition (Including Seniors and Persons with Disabilities)
內文	To encourage inmates to develop regular exercise habits and to demonstrate the institution's commitment to human rights and care, this institution held a "Set-Shot Basketball Competition" on March 12. This year's event specially expanded eligibility to include elderly inmates and inmates with disabilities. The initiative aimed to show concern and support for these specific groups, encouraging them to overcome physical limitations and regain confidence through sports. By adjusting the competition rules, participants were also able to experience the enjoyment of physical activity and a sense of achievement. The event sought to create a more inclusive environment where everyone has the opportunity to demonstrate their self-worth. In the future, the institution will continue to promote diverse recreational and cultural activities. Programs and competitions will be designed to meet the varying needs of inmates, implementing individualized treatment approaches and helping them develop a positive attitude toward reintegration into society
